EIFFEL TOWER EXPERIENCE AT PARIS LAS VEGAS NAMED “BEST PLACE TO PROPOSE” BY VEGASHOTSPOTS.COM IN TIME FOR VALENTINE’S DAY

Romantic Venues Abound for Couples Seeking Anything From “Best Dinner With a View” to “Best Place to Tie the Knot”

LAS VEGAS, February 6, 2003 – Thousands of marriage proposals – some traditional and some off-the-hook – will occur next week and many of them will be made in Las Vegas. Just in time for Valentine’s Day, VegasHotSpots.com™, the only “insider with attitude” website for Las Vegas, today awarded its “Best Place to Propose” designation to the Eiffel Tower Experience at Paris Las Vegas Hotel overlooking the Strip and the Fountains of Bellagio.

“Popping the question is such a special and memorable day for every couple and they want the place to be as romantic as the moment,” said Tom Hantges, publisher of VegasHotSpots.com. For those who can’t make it to Paris, France, Las Vegas comes pretty close. The top of the Eiffel Tower at Paris Las Vegas is 460 feet above the Strip and at night combines a panoramic view of our own City of Lights with the dancing waters show as a stunning backdrop. More than 200,000 people get married in Las Vegas every year.

Proving that a trip to Las Vegas can be as much about romance and escape as it is about gaming, VegasHotSpots.com also answers the question, “where is the ‘best dinner with a view,’ ‘best sexy lingerie,’ and if my proposal is accepted, the ‘best rooms to order breakfast in bed?’”

VegasHotSpots.com recommends 100 of the hottest spots in Las Vegas, including what to see, where to stay, where to eat, must-see shows (and showgirls), raging, romantic, or naughty nightlife, and unusual and entertaining attractions. (answers to questions in paragraph above, in order: Alize at The Palms Casino Resort; Le Boudoir Boutique; and, The Four Seasons.)

"Everyone who comes to Las Vegas wants to make the most of their time and money and we are their friend behind the velvet rope," said Hantges. "We know Las Vegas inside-and-out and serve as a 'virtual concierge' for anyone coming to town. Our 'Hot Spots' are determined by an advisory board that sees the shows, parties at the clubs and bars, and plays at the machines and tables."

The VegasHotSpots.com home page provides links to fun facts about Las Vegas, a "Survival Guide", and a chance to win one of VegasHotSpots.com's "Giveaway-a-Day." The good stuff, however, can be found in Club Royale, a members-only section containing the Hot Spots lists, articles on what's new and hot, and members-only promotions. Joining Club Royale is fast and free...all it takes is a name and e-mail address.

VegasHotSpots.com was launched in April 2002 and since then has given an inside peek at the best of Las Vegas. A sample of the Valentine's Day-oriented HotSpots categories (and winners) for 2002:

- Best Dinner With a View (Alize at The Palms Casino Resort)
- Best Hotel to Have an Affair (Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino)
- Best Restaurant to Impress (Picasso at The Bellagio Hotel and Casino)
- Best Rooms to Order Breakfast in Bed (The Four Seasons Hotel)
- Best Sexy Lingerie (Le Boudoir Boutique)
- Best Place to Tie a Knot (Little White Chapel)

For 2003, VegasHotSpots.com will be refining the current list as well as adding new, sexy and fun Hot Spots throughout the year.

About VegasHotSpots.com
